

LITURGY OF THE WORD
Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary
Time Year B

First Reading Ez 17:22-24

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel
I have made the small tree great.

The Lord says this: 'From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain. I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel. It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches. And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green. I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.'

The Word of the Lord
R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 91:2-3, 13-16. R. see v.2

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

1. It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night.

2. The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar.

3. Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong.

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Second Reading 2 Cor 5:6-10

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing the Lord.

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight – we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

The Word of the Lord
R. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever.
 Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 4:26-34

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The mustard seed, the smallest of all the seeds, grows into the biggest shrub of all.

Jesus said to the crowds, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come.' He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.'

Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

The Gospel of the Lord

R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

The readings today remind us that poetic imagery is an apt way of describing the mysterious presence of God in our midst. The cedar began as a seedling that takes years to grow into a magnificent tree. The same is true of the mustard tree. It too requires time to develop its trunk and branches. The development of moral integrity in a human being is just as gradual. Rooted in God, it flourishes in God's presence and it produces fruit even into old age. Although God is present in all things, sustaining them and allowing them to follow their natural courses, God really transcends all things. Metaphorical language may be the best means for speaking about God and the things of God. It enables us to live in the tension that both reveals something about God and conceals God's real nature.

The reign of God also begins in very ordinary circumstances, and it matures gradually until it has spread itself far and wide. Although the mystery of the reign of God unfolds within human history, we need eyes of faith to recognise it. Like the cedar and the mustard seed, it grows within the concreteness of human experience. Just as the life force that thrusts the branches of the trees further and further out cannot itself be seen, so the reign of God is mysterious, even incomprehensible. Still, it is there, inviting us, urging us to move forward, transforming our world.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time -YEAR B

The parables that Jesus mentions today reminds me of a story that I read from the Spiritual Book of an Indian Jesuit Priest, Fr Anthony De Mello. The story begins with the scene of a woman who was dreaming during her sleep after a long day at work. She saw herself walk into a very busy supermarket. There was a special stall, called the Kingdom, at the corner which people had to form in a long queue. Looking into the counter, she was amazed because she saw Jesus working in that stall. She decided to join the queue, and she was patiently waiting until her turn.

She was so excited and asked Jesus: "Oh my Lord, you must be an outstanding businessman! But what are you selling?" Jesus answered: "My dear child, I sell everything that you wish."

Then she took a moment to think and then she answered: "Dear Lord, it is so lucky for me to see you here. Look! I am really weary with my life, so please give me some fruits of peace, love, happiness, wisdom and freedom." After thinking for a while, she added: "my husband and my children also cause me headache sometimes, so please give them the fruit to be more mature, to know how to cook, to wash and iron their own clothes..."

Jesus just smiled and responded to her request: "Oh my dear child, I don't sell fruit here but only seeds. So, you can grow them by yourself, but be assured that every seed that I give you has a lifetime warranty."

The story shows us a lesson that we should never be daunted by a small beginning. Jesus here invited the woman, and as well as those who came to his stall, or maybe you and me today, to receive the tiny seed and sow it in our lives with faith. By this action, the seed of faith can grow into a big tree, and it can produce many fruits. At the moment, it may seem that we can only produce a very small effect; but if that small effect is repeated and repeated, it will become very great. In other words, we often feel unsure about starting with something small to achieve some big goals. But we must remember that everything must have a beginning, and nothing emerges fully-grown. Therefore, it is our duty to do our best, and we will leave the rest in the loving care of God.

The readings today also mentioned the almighty of God. The prophet Ezekiel used the metaphor of a bulky cedar on the high mountain of Israel, where there is the home for every animal on earth, as the house of God. Moreover, St Paul mentioned in his letter to the Corinthians about the good life that can be found only in the house of God. Therefore, God is waiting for us to build our home in his heart so that the seed that we planted will flourish with His care, and then bear much more fruits.

We pray for our Church today, especially the Church in Australia which is going through the process of Plenary Council, that we may trust in God's care, listen to each other and be ready to go out and spread the seeds of the Good News to all the people. At the end, our Church can be a place for many people to make their home of faith, hope and love.

May the love of God be with us all and keep us warm during this winter season.
 Blessings, Mark Ha

LIVING FAITH IN THE EVERYDAY

These Times are Anything But Ordinary

As we return to Ordinary Time in the Church's Year, we are reminded daily that the times are anything but Ordinary! Certainly, the coronavirus pandemic focuses us on our changing world and the very clear inequity, so many suffer.

Within our own community a very cold winter is upon us and we are confronted with an increasing number of homeless people. We continue to be called in these extraordinary times, to reach out even in small ways because as Mark's Gospel this weekend reminds us 'from the tiny mustard seed the biggest shrub grows!'

The Parables of Jesus continually call us to stop, look around us in our world and as a recent reflection on the Mustard Seed Parable states,

'Jesus accepts the ordinary, the lowly and wants all to be a part of God's Kingdom' (Greg Ryan, St V De Paul)

Let us pray this week to be open, silent in our prayer and listen to God so that in the words of Jesse Manibusan's Hymn

*Open my eyes Lord, help me to see your face
Open my eyes Lord, help me to see.
Open my ears Lord, help me to ear your voice
Open my ears Lord, help me to hear.
Open my heart Lord, help me to love like you
Open my heart Lord, help me to love.*
