

LITURGY OF THE WORD
13th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Year B
First Reading Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24
A reading from the book of Wisdom
It was the devil's envy that brought death into the world.

Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living. To be – for this he created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying. Yet God did make man imperishable, he made him in the image of his own nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.
The Word of the Lord
R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm
Ps 29:2. 4-6. 11-13. R. v.2
R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.
1. I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.
2. Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.
3. The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing, O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.
R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Second Reading 2 Cor 8:7. 9. 13-15
A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
Your abundance should supply their want.
You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

The Word of the Lord
R. Thanks be to God
Gospel Acclamation 2 Tm 1:10
Alleluia, alleluia!
Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel. Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 5:21-43
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Young girl, I say to you, arise.
When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him. Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years; after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she had spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch even his clothes,' she had told herself 'I will be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out from him, Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?"' But he continued to look all round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.' While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official,

'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were over come with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

REFLECTION by Fr Michael Tate
Subverting the Social Order
Jesus is on his way to fulfil the request of a named male synagogue official who has given voice on behalf of his ill daughter. Jesus is stopped in his tracks by an unnamed voiceless female who has been ostracised from the social and religious life of the town. Part of her healing is to get her voice back. She tells Jesus everything and he addresses her with the beautiful title, 'Daughter'. Imagine the joy of this woman hearing such a term of affectionate relationship. Jesus went on: '... your faith has made you whole: go in peace and be healed of your disease.' Jesus did not regard this as an interruption to his journey to heal the daughter of Jairus. Stopping was an absolute priority subverting the expectations and power structures of society. The healing presence of Jesus was, and is, radically egalitarian. Perhaps we could take a moment to pray that we have the courage to touch the hem of Our Lord's cloak in Confession. There we can tell him everything which has left us ill-at-ease in our relationship with God, our fellow human beings and in ourselves. With confidence in his Divine power, we can ask him to heal the dis-ease in some part of our personality. Hear him respond: "Daughter (or son), your faith has made you whole: go in peace and be healed of your disease". Then share in the joy of the woman of our Gospel story.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time -YEAR B

Dear Parishioners,

Peace and blessings.

Each year during the last weekend of June, we celebrate and renew our commitment to giving in support of the ongoing mission of the Church. This is in view of the end of the Financial Year, offering us great opportunity to give account of our stewardship by publishing the Parish Finance Report, acknowledge and appreciate your generous contributions and encourage giving for sustenance of our parish.

Therefore, we would like to thank you individually for your financial contributions through planned giving, direct debits, envelopes, tap &s go and donations in support of the parish throughout the last financial year. This is deeply appreciated especially during this challenging time of natural disasters, the ongoing global pandemic, and the economic depression. Yet your contributions have kept the parish going.

Meanwhile, 70% of all the contributions received remains in the parish and has helped with the administrative, maintenance, recurrent, and every day running costs of the parish. The remaining 30% has helped to support the clergy of the Archdiocese including our priests and seminarians.

Also, we would like to acknowledge a generous donation of $10 000 by a parishioner for the installation of a ducted reverse cycle air conditioner in the presbytery and the single unit in the parish meeting room, improving both the presbytery and the meeting room's ambience. Thanks to the generosity of the donor and those who did the installation.

Within this period, the parish has experienced a lot of generosity through voluntary service and ministry, especially in pastoral care, liturgy, and altar ministries. So many individuals have donated many hours of work on the maintenance of the parish church buildings and grounds, through the garden ministry. Thanks to the Parish Pastoral Council for quality pastoral leadership and for their ongoing commitment to developing the 2021-2023 Parish Pastoral Plan. Special thanks to the Parish Finance Council for their dedicated stewardship of the temporal goods of the parish and for developing an annual budget to ensure that we are disciplined by the budget for healthy parish finances.

Meanwhile, a big thank you to our Voluntary and paid parish staff for their commitment. This weekend, they have put together a snapshot of the parish's finance report for the last financial year for your information. Please feel free to speak to our staff and members of our parish finance council if you have any queries regarding the account or giving.

Once again thank you all for committing your resources, time and talents in support of the mission of Christ through our parish. May God reward your generosity abundantly.

Every blessing.

Fr Martins

LIVING FAITH IN THE EVERYDAY

Refugee Week – is there Room in the Inn Today?

This week is Refugee Week 2021, a time to raise awareness of those in our community who have been forced to leave their homes and seek protection in Australia. Many have chosen to live in Dioceses across Australia and this week we reflect on what this means for us and our Church communities.

Australia's current refugee policy and the situation of refugees in Australia appear to be dire on many fronts. However, many people with a lived experience of seeking protection in this country have encouraging and inspiring stories to tell. So do people who "walk with them" and support them.

Paradoxically, Refugee Week began in Australia in 1986 and is now a global celebration. It is an opportunity to celebrate the many wonderful ways in which people from refugee and asylum-seeker backgrounds enrich our communities.

Some of us have the privilege of very personal stories of our lives being greatly enriched through young refugees joining our families – we thank God for the blessing of their lives and those of their families and children.

Refugee Week is an opportunity for us to welcome, thank and celebrate our neighbours who have come seeking safety and to advocate for those needing our support.

Father Martins Annual Holiday

Fr Martins will be on annual leave from 28th June until 28th July. Fr John Walters will be supporting the Parish from 28th June until 11th July. Fr John Iacono will be with us then from July 12th until 28th July. For any enquiries, please contact the Parish Office on 44724153.
