

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Sunday 02 Feb 2025

The Presentation of the Lord

First Reading Malachi 3:1-4

A reading from the prophet Malachi

The Lord whom you seek will come to his temple.

The Lord God says this: Look, I am going to send my messenger to prepare a way before me. And the Lord you are seeking will suddenly enter his temple; and the angel of the covenant whom you are longing for, yes, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. Who will be able to resist the day of his coming? Who will remain standing when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire and the fuller's alkali. He will take his seat as refiner and purifier; he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and then they will make the offering to the Lord as it should be made. The offering of Judah and Jerusalem will then be welcomed by the Lord as in former days, as in the years of old.

The Word of the Lord

R. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 23:7-10. R. v.10

(R.) Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord!

1. O gates, lift up your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory!

2. Who is the king of glory? The Lord, the mighty, the valiant, the Lord, the valiant in war.

3. O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory!

4. Who is he, the king of glory? He, the Lord of armies, he is the king of glory.

(R.) Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord

Second Reading

Hebrews 2:14-18

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

He had to be made like us in all things.

Since all the children share the same blood and flesh, Jesus too shared equally in it, so that by his death he could take away all the power of the devil, who had power over death, and set free all those who had been held in slavery all their lives by the fear of death. For it was not the angels that he took to himself; he took to himself descent from Abraham. It was essential that he should in this way become completely like his brothers so that he could be a compassionate and trustworthy high priest of God's religion, able to atone for human sins. That is, because he has himself been through temptation he is able to help others who are tempted.

The Word of the Lord

R. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation Luke 2:32

Alleluia, alleluia!

This is the light of revelation to the nations, and the glory of your people Israel. Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 2:22-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

My eyes have seen your saving power.

When the day came for them to be purified as laid down by the Law of Moses, the parents of Jesus took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord – observing what stands written in the Law of the Lord: Every first-born male must be consecrated to the Lord – and also to offer in sacrifice, in accordance with what is said in the Law of the Lord, a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons. Now in Jerusalem there was a man named Simeon. He was an upright and devout man; he looked forward to Israel's comforting and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death until he had set eyes on the Christ of the Lord. Prompted by the Spirit he came to the Temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the Law required, he took him into his arms and blessed God, and he said: 'Now, Master, you can let your servant go in peace, just as you promised; because my eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared for all the nations to see, a light to enlighten the pagans and the glory of your people Israel.' As the child's father and mother stood there wondering at the things that were being said about him, Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, 'You see this child: he is destined for the fall and for the rising of many in Israel, destined to be a sign that is rejected – and a sword will pierce your own soul too – so that the secret thoughts of many may be laid bare.' There was a prophetess also, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was well on in years. Her days of girlhood over, she had been married for seven years before becoming a widow. She was now eighty-four years old and never left the Temple, serving God night and day with fasting and prayer. She came by just at that moment and began to praise God; and she spoke of the child to all who looked forward to the deliverance of Jerusalem. When they had done everything the Law of the Lord required, they went back to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. Meanwhile the child grew to maturity, and he was filled with wisdom; and God's favour was with him.

The Gospel of the Lord

REFLECTION by Nick Brodie

Pope Francis draws our attention to the way that today's feast is about encounter. He is particularly interested in how this episode takes place 'between the young and the old'. This was a profound spiritual moment shared by 'two newlyweds,' as the Pope describes Mary and Joseph, and the elderly and faithful Simeon and Anna.

The Pope draws our attention to their respective dispositions. Mary and Joseph are not just going through the motions. They clearly really believe that what they are doing is important, even if they wonder what it all means. Meanwhile, Simeon and Anna were clearly 'guided by the Holy Spirit' and 'full of life!' Their encounter was not only between generations, therefore, but was also what the Pope calls 'a unique encounter between observance and prophecy.'

'It's good for the elderly to communicate their wisdom to the young,' the Pope reminds us, 'and it's good for the young people to gather this wealth of experience and wisdom, and to carry it forward ... addressing the challenges that life brings.' Perhaps we might pray this week for the wisdom to respond to the promptings of the Spirit, and for the Grace to leave a joyful mark on all the people we might encounter, young or old.

Presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple Sunday of the Word of God

As well as the two headings to this Reflection I'm conscious of the fact that the Church is already a month into the Jubilee Year 2025, which Pope Francis has called a Pilgrimage of Hope.

We are familiar with The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple as the fourth Joyful Mystery of the Rosary. We probably pass over the fact that Luke in his gospel, couples it with the Purification of Mary. True it is an indication of Joseph and Mary being observant Jews who obeyed the Mosaic Law. Just as they were compliant citizens who travelled to Bethlehem for the Roman census forty days previously.

Let us not forget Luke is writing maybe fifty/sixty years after the death of Christ. Jerusalem has fallen. The church's mission to the Gentiles was progressing well. Despite being under duress within and without. End-time expectations were diminishing. I like to think Luke is using this episode of the Presentation in the Temple to illustrate the breach that will emerge between the Jewish Law and the Law of Christ.

Mary follows the commandment in Leviticus 12: 1-8 that a mother must undergo a rite of purification forty days after the birth of a male child. The Jews believed the whole process of creating human life from conception to birth sullied a woman's body in a most intimate way. It could only be cleansed by regular bathing for forty days and obtaining a clearance and blessing from a priest.

Luke (1: 26-38) has already told us how Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit. Mary remained a virgin. She remained the purest of creatures. But as the handmaid of the Lord she complied with the Law. She expected no favours.

In memory of God's sparing the first-born sons in Egypt (Exodus 13:2) the Law required that all first-born sons be consecrated to God to carry out the family's religious rituals. A task later given to the Levites but the practice of consecration continued. However, the son could be redeemed by making an offering to The Temple. The irony in this situation is that Jesus is not the son of Joseph. Jesus, as Eternal Son of God the Father, had become man by the Holy Spirit in order to redeem the whole of the human family from sin and death.

Simeon and Anna are exemplars of those devout Jews who regarded the Holy of Holies within the Temple as the place where God dwelt above the Ark of Covenant. Their common prayer was that the Lord make a New Covenant with his chosen people as promised in Malachi 3: 2.

Simeon feels this promise being realised as he nurses the child Jesus in the presence of God.

Now, Master, you can let your servant go in peace just as you promised.

Because my eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared for all the nations to see, a light to enlighten the pagans and the glory of your people Israel.

Simeon was supported by the prophetess, Anna, who spoke of the child to all who looked forward to the deliverance of Jerusalem. Lord Jesus Christ may we imitate Mary and Joseph, Simeon and Anna, and place our trust in You and Your Father and the Holy Spirit today and in all the days of our earthly pilgrimage of hope. Amen Joe Quigley

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
 may the faith you have given us
 in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame
 of charity enkindled
 in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
 May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos, in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when,
 with the powers of Evil
 vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
 a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
 May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
 throughout the earth.
 To you our God, eternally blessed,
 be glory and praise for ever.

Amen
