Jesus came to save you

Adam and Eve had everything. They could have lived the perfect life, wanting for nothing. But they sinned. They did the one thing that God asked them not to. As punishment God turned the people out of paradise to find their own way. He still loved them and he still provided for them. He waited for them to choose Him.

The people sometimes turned to God and did what he wanted. They also turned away from God and did the wrong things. It happened again and again. God would show the people he loved them. They would follow him and then fall away into sin.

Then God sent His only Son, Jesus, to become a person, one of us. He grew up in a family and a community. As an adult he travelled telling and showing the people that God loved them and what God wanted them to do. To save the people from sin and death Jesus took up His cross and let the people crucify Him. He loved us so much He died for us. He defeated sin and death and opened the gates of heaven to those of us who follow Him. Will you?

A large, bold black cross is centered on the page. The cross is filled with numerous hearts of various sizes, some overlapping. The hearts are arranged in a way that they seem to flow from the center of the cross towards the edges. In the bottom left corner, there is a small rectangular box containing the text: DISCIPLES
