SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR C

DO WHATEVER HE TELLS YOU

At the marriage feast of Cana, Jesus turns water, set aside for washing, into wine of great quality. A new richness and abundance flow to the people from Jesus. We will partake of this richness if we, like the attendants at the wedding, follow Mary's instruction to 'do whatever he tells you'. As we receive the gifts he offers we are transformed in turn into a new creation.

Baptisms

This weekend we welcome Sirena Boag and Marcus Bogg into our faith community through the waters of Baptism. May God's love and blessings be upon them this Baptism day and always.

Archdiocesan Protocols as of 13 January 2022

Facemasks are mandatory in churches. The 2sqm per person rule applies for inside the church. Congregational singing is not permitted. Holy Communion may be received in the hand only.

Collection Plate for Weekend Masses

Cash collections have been reinstated. The collection plate will be passed around at Masses.

PRAYER FOR THE PANDEMIC

Lord Jesus Christ, our true physician and healer, be merciful to us and bring us your aid in this time of pandemic. Heal our sickness and every affliction of your people.

Drive out our infirmities of soul and body, free us from all disease and especially from this pestilence. We place in your gentle Heart the elderly, the frail, people with disability, children, young people and families, our indigenous peoples, those who are poor, lonely and isolated.

As you walk with us, free them from fear, and give them patience and hope together with our loving care. In your mercy deal also with the causes of our pitiful condition, that in curing our lack of faith and spiritual weakness, you may remedy our bodily ills.

We place our trust in you, the risen Lord, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen
