

An Invitation to Mothers of our Parish – from Louise Heywood

In response to the plenary council theme to be “inclusive, participatory and synodal” and inspired by my day at a forum for women in the Archdiocese back in July, I am looking to start an informal group for mothers in our Parish. In a relaxed and casual setting, over a cuppa and cake I am inviting mothers to come together to share their ideas and questions about bringing up their children in the Catholic faith. As a result of coming together I hope women will connect with others in the Parish, new friendships will be formed and the group will evolve into what you, the women of our Parish want. I encourage everyone to invite one person they know who may be interested, and I am looking forward to meeting you all, chatting and see where this journey takes us!

First get together will be Thursday 24 October at 1.30pm in Marian Hall (next to St Matthew’s Church)

Children welcome
