Plenary Council—Second Assembly 3-10 July 2022

Dear Friends in Christ,

In a few days, I will travel to Sydney to participate in the 2nd Assembly of the Plenary Council of Australia. It will be conducted from 3-10th July 2022.

Along with members from our own Archdiocese, over 270 representatives from all over Australia will gather to listen to each other and discern the whisper of the Holy Spirit amongst us.

It will be a point of arrival after several years of detailed consultation throughout Australia since 2018 regarding the future pastoral direction of the Catholic Church in our beautiful land.

It will be, too, a point of departure. After Papal approval, there will be the promulgation of the decisions and decrees of the Council. Then a long implementation journey will begin of these decrees in dioceses, including our own.

So, at this moment of great pastoral importance, may I ask humbly of all in the Archdiocese of Canberra and Goulburn to pray that the Holy Spirit will lead us with joy and hope. Your remembrance in your Masses and Prayers would be much appreciated

Just as Jesus walked together with the disciples of Emmaus, may Jesus too walk with us. May our hearts, like those of the disciples, "burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explained the scriptures to us." (Luke 24:32)

God bless always,

Archbishop Christopher.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday 3 July 2022

Each year, on the first Sunday in July, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in the Catholic Church. This year the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council (NATSICC) has combined the NAIDOC theme with the Gospel: The Harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few (Matt 9:37) Get up! Stand up! Show up!

We acknowledge today, that God has been walking with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples, making His Presence known through a continuous living culture over many thousands of years.

We pray in thanksgiving for these ancient peoples and culture who have enriched and sustained our continent over all that time. We praise God for the people who nurtured the land here in our Parish that we call home.

Mumeri was created by Dr Lisa Buxton.

The theme 'Holy Spirit in this Land' was captured in the artwork through the use of Aboriginal and Catholic symbolism.

Entrance Antiphon: Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

Responsorial: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Gospel Acclamation: May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you.

Communion Antiphon: Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

First Reading

Is 66:10-14

Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her! That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts. For thus says the Lord: Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spate the glory of the nations. At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be conformed. At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

Second Reading

Gal 6:14-18

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God. I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

Gospel

Lk 10:1-12. 17-20

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near." I tell you, that on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.' The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord,' they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.'
