A Blessed Father's Day!

Whether biological, spiritual, or adoptive, fatherhood is the vocation of every man. Perhaps today, the greatest sadness lies in the fact that many do not realise nor embrace this truth. In these days and months, we have witnessed again, how the calm, comforting, guiding and protective vocation of the father is as essential as ever.

Beginning the Year of Saint Joseph (Dec 8th, 2020-2021), Pope Francis spoke of Jesus' earthly father as a "beloved father, a tender and loving father, an obedient father, an accepting father; a father who is creatively courageous, a working father, a father in the shadows." All these attributes point to the identity of the father as one who lives not for himself, but to give life and love to another.

In Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love, 2016), the Pope wrote: "God sets the father in the family so that by the gifts of his masculinity he can be close to his wife and share everything, joy and sorrow, hope and hardship... Close to his children as they grow – when they play and when they work, when they are carefree and when they are distressed, when they are talkative and when they are silent, when they are daring and when they are afraid, when they stray and when they get back on the right path..."

Of course, we only often momentarily achieve this ideal, to greater or lesser degrees. Yet this is the pattern every man should strive for. After all, it is for such a life that he was created. It is the perfection we find in God our Father, which we seek to emulate. God the Father is ever-present in the good and the difficult, the high and the low, the affluent times, as well as the anxious, covid times. A true father shares in everything with his children, and never leaves their side.

I am unsure what practitioners would make of Jesus' healing methods in today's Gospel. Putting his fingers into the man's ears, he spits, touches the man's tongue, and... 'immediately the man's ears were open'. WH&S aside, Jesus' actions reveal something intensely personal about God. It is not the fact that Jesus heals, but the way he chooses to heal. He could have simply spoken, as with Simon Peter's mother-in-law, or as he did in the beginning. Yet now he reaches out and touches. His presence is physical and intensely personal; even taking the man away from the crowd. We often seek Jesus' healing, but not his heart. We seek a remedy, but not a relationship. And when we do, no wonder we remain unsatisfied! Mass becomes an obligation! Our Faith? A set of rules! Yet God seeks an intimate relationship; one which shares in the burden. In these difficult days, know that God is not 'watching' from a distance, but reaching out, not afraid to touch the places where we are wounded, in the midst of this pandemic. If anything now is the time to focus upon these truths of our faith.

Fatherhood is intimate, physical and vulnerable. It does not shy away from the difficult. Not when one's beloved is entrenched in it. Every father is called to witness and allow others, indeed the world, to experience this truth. Yet first, we must experience it ourselves. I write this, conscious of the fact that some have not experienced this. Many long to see it in their own fathers, husbands and even themselves. But in this moment, we remember that God our Father wishes to be this for us in each and every moment, of each and every day. Here, just as Jesus held and touched the deaf man, gazing to His Father, so too does he hold and reach out to touch us. For what is true of Jesus' actions in today Gospel, is true of the Heavenly Father and each man who strives to imitate that love.

"As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love... I have made known to you everything I have heard from my Father." (John 15:9,15)

Fatherhood is a participation in the Love of God, and our society, it seems, is only as healthy as the fathers who make it up. We pray today for all fathers – living and deceased, fathers to-be, and father figures. May all men have the courage to imitate such a life. Let us pray for them and the critical vocation which is theirs.

We give thanks for all retired priests this day too. Please consider supporting them in the Annual Father Day Appeal, which we launch today. Envelopes will be available when we return to our churches but in these weeks online options are available on the CatholicVoice website.

With great affection and prayers. Happy Father's Day.

A Prayer for Fathers

Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.
Bless all fathers, as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience; support them in their call, to protect those who look to them.
May they echo your life-giving Fatherhood, as we look to you for love and life, through Jesus Christ our rock and defender. Amen

An Act of Spiritual Communion Prayer:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

First Reading

Is 35:4-7

Say to all faint hearts, 'Courage! Do not be afraid. 'Look, your God is coming, vengeance is coming, the retribution of God; he is coming to save you.' Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy; for water gushes in the desert, streams in the wasteland, the scorched earth becomes a lake, the parched land springs of water.

Second Reading

Jas 2:1-5

My brothers, do not try to combine faith in Jesus Christ, our glorified Lord, with the making of distinctions between classes of people. Now suppose a man comes into your synagogue, beautifully dressed and with a gold ring on, and at the same time a poor man comes in, in shabby clothes, and you take notice of the well-dressed man, and say, 'Come this way to the best seats'; then you tell the poor man, 'Stand over there' or 'You can sit on the floor by my foot-rest.' Can't you see that you have used two different standards in your mind, and turned yourselves into judges, and corrupt judges at that?

Listen, my dear brothers: it was those who are poor according to the world that God chose, to be rich in faith and to be the heirs to the kingdom which he promised to those who love him.

Gospel Reading

Mk 7:31-37

Returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went by way of Sidon towards the sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha,' that is, 'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'
