St Peter Chanel's: By arrangement

Dear friends,

I recently rediscovered the timeless, thought-provoking verses attributed to the Roman Statesman, Marcus Tullius Cicero; known to history simply as Cicero (106-43BC). In his culture and time, Cicero observed and even mourned shortcomings, which humanity still struggles with in the 21st century. I find it sobering, heartening, consoling and even comical, that even then, Cicero lamented humanity's wrestle with these obstacles; prevalent centuries before his own birth, in his own life-time and... today. We think we've come so far...! He writes:

*"Six mistakes mankind keeps making century after century.
Believing that personal gain is made by crushing others;
Worrying about things that cannot be changed or corrected;
Insisting that a thing is impossible because we cannot accomplish it;
Refusing to set aside trivial preferences;
Neglecting development and refinement of the mind;
Attempting to compel others to believe and live as we do."*

These stumbling blocks, daily companions on the road, remind us of the constant task to reject the gravity of our human weakness, folly and pride, which pull us inward as opposed to out. Outward to the other, outward to life, outward to God.

It seems Cicero's enduring words, closely canvass the heart of the argument among the disciples on the road. Indeed, even the disciples were occupied by the same obstacles as many today.

Yet Jesus offers the alternative, a remedy, with words paramount to the Christian life. 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' (Mk 9:35). Jesus invites them, and us, to imitate himself.

Jesus - forever the Teacher - schools his companions as to the heart of human happiness, purpose and the way forward. Predicting his passion, death, and Resurrection, Jesus not only prepares his disciples (those entrusted with his Mission) for what lay ahead, but even now reveals the identity that characterises those who belong to him. For those who belong to the world act as the disciples had on the road; investing in the trivial and shallow, forever debating who is the greatest! (Mk 9:34)

Jesus reveals however, where lasting greatness lies, and that is in the person aware of, yet undistracted and undeterred by their own brokenness. True greatness emerges from one who is focused on Jesus, and his power— to see through false ideas of worldly greatness which have blinded up and down the ages.

Disassembling preconceived ideas of greatness, effectiveness, power and status, Jesus teaches that the one who lives and dies in service of the other, is truly great. The one who welcomes, loves and attends to the lowliest; a lesson of which he is the archetypal teacher.

Jesus calls a little child and sets them among the disciples. For a child gives nothing of what the world considers 'valuable' in return. In a child there's no political 'payback', they can not vote, nor give speeches about how great your helpfulness is. In fact, they take for granted your care for them. They do not make a big deal of the fact that you pour your life out for them. Children and the vulnerable, prove, more than any other, whether you are truly great or not—whether you live to serve or to be praised.

Our second reading from Saint James warns, 'Wherever you find jealousy and ambition, you find disharmony, and wicked things of every kind... whereas the wisdom that comes down from above is something pure; ...makes for peace...is kindly and considerate; it is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good... [Those who] work for peace, sow the seeds which will bear fruit in holiness.' He then asks the haunting question, perhaps one similar to Cicero's: 'Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Isn't it precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves?'

Today Jesus speaks to us, a reminder of where true greatness is found. Greatness and true happiness is found only in diakonia, service, that is, a life lived for the sake of the other, not the self. And not by chance! But by virtue of the fact that we were created in the image of a God defined by such perpetual self-giving. To 'give' is God's nature. And so...

*Greatness is to build and encourage life in the other;
to place our trust and faith in God's promise and not fret the things which are transient;
to embrace truth and holiness amid a world which says that such is impossible to know and to live;
Greatness it is to choose the other instead of ourselves;
to actively grow in knowledge of God; the true, good and beautiful in in our mind and heart;
it is to tirelessly propose to other, not proselytise, the Truth of Christ and witness his love.*

THE AUSTRALIAN PLENARY COUNCIL – it's about to begin! From 3rd-10th October the plenary delegates will gather in hubs across Australia. The Plenary Council is a formal meeting of the bishops and other representatives of the dioceses and eparchies of the Catholic Church in Australia. Its purpose is to discern what God is asking of us in Australia at this time. While the church should ask this question always, the Council is a graced instrument for seeking the Holy Spirit's guidance. This comes through a gift that the baptised receive, "a sense for the faith" (sensus fidei). Moreover, the whole church together has this special gift, what is called "the faithful's sense of the faith" (sensus fidelium). This is a sacred conduit for hearing what God is asking. The bishops ensure that interpretations of divine revelation are faithful to the past. Yet equally important, is that God's present movement in human history is being acted upon. Vatican II spoke of how God "continues to converse" with His Body, the Church (Dei Verbum, 8). Through the Plenary Council, the Church desires to enter more intensely into the divine-human dialogue. Visit plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/ for the Council Agenda, the Instrumentum Laboris (Working document), members, roles and more.

Pray, Pray, Pray...

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.

Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.

THE ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

First Reading

Wis 2:12, 17-20

The godless say to themselves, 'Let us lie in wait for the virtuous man, since he annoys us and opposes our way of life, reproaches us for our breaches of the law and accuses us of playing false to our upbringing. Let us see if what he says is true, let us observe what kind of end he himself will have. If the virtuous man is God's son, God will take his part and rescue him from the clutches of his enemies. Let us test him with cruelty and with torture, and thus explore this gentleness of his and put his endurance to the proof. Let us condemn him to a shameful death since he will be looked after – we have his word for it.'

Second Reading

Jas 3:16 – 4:3

Wherever you find jealousy and ambition, you find disharmony, and wicked things of every kind being done; whereas the wisdom that comes down from above is essentially something pure; it also makes for peace, and is kindly and considerate; it is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good; nor is there any trace of partiality or hypocrisy in it. Peacemakers, when they work for peace, sow the seeds which will bear fruit in holiness.

Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Isn't it precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves? You want something and you haven't got it; so you are prepared to kill. You have an ambition that you cannot satisfy; so you fight to get your way by force. Why you don't have what you want is because you don't pray for it; when you do pray and don't get it, it is because you have not prayed properly, you have prayed for something to indulge your own desires.

Gospel Reading

Mk 9:30-37

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him.

They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'
