St Peter Chanel's: By arrangement

Dearest Friends,

This weekend, we begin to emerge from lockdown, but it will necessarily be slow. I eagerly await the day we come back together, without having to monitor numbers and pews – yet in the coming weeks we must do just this. Details on how to book a spot at Mass, as well as other sacraments and 'opening-up' details can be found on our website.

Please note, Confessions and Holy Hours will recommence in coming weeks, with Covid safe requirements in place. I want to thank you all for your patience and faithful witness during these days.

Well, last week we concluded the first assembly (of 2), of the 5th Plenary Council of Australia, and now coincidentally (and providentially!), the universal Church begins a similar process. This weekend, dioceses around the world mark the opening of the two-year process called "a synod on synodality," officially known as "Synod 2021-2023: For a Synodal Church."

A synod is a gathering that helps the Church to walk forward together. The word synod itself comes from the Greek and images a walking together on the same path. Synods were common in the early centuries of Christianity. In 1965, Paul VI instituted the Synod of Bishops, wanting to continue the collegial exchange present at Vatican II (1962-65). Since then, synods have occurred every two or three years focussing on topics from the Eucharist, to the new evangelization, to the family, and youth.

Unlike past synods however, this one won't address a particular issue but will focus on who God is calling us to be as a Church, together, here and now, and into the future. Suffice to say, the whole Church now asks the question we've been asking in Australia during our own plenary journey.

This Synod is also unprecedented, in that it aims at giving the entire Church a lived experience of synodality. It isn't about filling in a questionnaire, nor just to talk about synodality, but putting it into practice in every parish, diocese, and the world – hence beginning the unique listening process spanning 2 years. Synodality is no passing phase! Rather, as Archbishop Christopher reminds us, synodality is about "walking together" and is at the heart of who the Church is, it is the "language of our Church" as the pilgrim people of God. Saint John Chrysostom once said that "Church" and "synod" were synonyms, since the Church is all about walking together.

Let us pray for this gift to the universal Church, for synodality is a way of renewing the Church from her deepest roots, in order to be more united with one another and better carry out Her mission. For as Pope Francis writes, in a "mutual listening...everyone has something to learn. The lay faithful, the bishops, the pope: all listening to each other, and all listening to the Holy Spirit, the "Spirit of truth" (Jn 14:17), in order to know what He is saying to the Church"

Father Trenton van Reesch

Administrator, St Christopher's Cathedral Parish

-The Prayer of the Synod- Adsumus Sancte Spiritus

This prayer will be used throughout the Synodal Process. Attributed to St. Isidore of Seville (560-636), it has been used at Councils and Synods for hundreds of years. This version was specifically designed for the Church's Synodal journey from 2021 to 2023.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

THE ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Readings of the Day – 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time —Year B

Cathedral QR code

Entrance Antiphon: To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon: Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

First Reading

Is 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering. If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done. His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content. By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

Second Reading

Heb 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

Gospel Reading

Mk 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them: 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'
