Dear Parishioners and Visitors to Saint Christopher's Cathedral Parish.

Thank you to all who have completed and returned Commitment Sunday forms. If you are yet to fill out or return one, please do so, that new ministry rosters can begin to be formulated. I remind those in ministries already that they too should fill out a form.

For some weeks now our Parish has been running the RCIA program. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (and older children) is for those who, seeking Jesus, feel drawn to the Catholic faith. This is a journey into a deeper knowledge and love of Christ and our Catholic way of life. The journey however always takes place within the living Body of Christ. We are all journeying as a parish community therefore with those seeking baptism and full communion with Christ's Body; so let us intentional pray for and support those in the program in these months and indeed years ahead.

At the beginning of the RCIA I always listen to the candidates stories and wow, does this put things into focus. In almost every story, the central conduit of why they wanted to find and know Christ and the Christian faith more, was a parishioner. We shouldn't be surprised at this! Whether a sister-in-law, another family member, a neighbour or just a stranger whom they had very few encounters with. In some cases it was a person they'd met once and never again – but who witnessed their faith and whose faith made a difference. In the words of one, this person was generous and content in an 'otherworldly way'. This is what draws many in and attracts them to Jesus and to His Church. It isn't necessarily what we say, but what we preach, not by words but by example, by the sympathetic influence of what we do and the evident fullness of the love that the Christian heart, the disciple's heart, bears for Christ. Through His Body (His members) Jesus does draw people to Himself.

This weekend is the annual Marian procession in Galong. Mary is the first, most faithful and perfect example of discipleship. Many of the Church Fathers often speak of Our Lady using the image of the moon. This is a beautiful way to contemplate our own understanding of who we are as those who seek to follow as disciples of her Son, and bring other to Him also. Just as the moon produces no light in and of itself but humbly, only ever reflects the light of the sun (especially in the darkest of nights)... so to the Christian. Mary models this in her faith, "I am the handmaid of the Lord, be it done unto me according to thy word!" (Lk 1:38). These words are the catch-cry of every Christian!

The Light Mary reflects is the Glory of her Son (not the s-u-n, but the S-o-n) and so too we must reflect only this light to the world... indeed, it's the only real light we have (and the only Light people truly want!).

With all going on in our parish and Archdiocese let us continue to grow in our knowledge of who we truly are, His Body, moons reflecting always and only His light, that people might come to know and love Him. And let us press on in witness to the Love that God is bestowing upon all who open their heart to His consoling and transforming love. Let us pray as the Body we are, for these prospective members of Christ's Body and let us always pray for each other, the family of God.

COMMITMENT SUNDAY 2019—“In the same way all of us, though many, make up one body in Christ, and as different parts, we are all joined to one another” (Rm.12:5). In the body of Christ, the Church, we are blessed with so many different gifts to be shared through various ministries. During October there will be available a Commitment Sunday form which outlines these ministries and invites you to discern and nominate yourself for one or more. Please take a form home and pray about how you might contribute to a ministry, recalling the words of St. Peter when he said, “each one of us has received a special grace, so, like good stewards responsible for all these varied graces of God, put it at the service of others” (1 Pt. 4:10). Forms may be returned anytime to the Office or on a collection plate.

LEGION OF MARY – Will meet again on Wednesday 30 October at 6.15pm in Haydon Hall (behind the Cathedral). Members meet for prayer, spiritual reading and apostolic works. All most welcome to attend. Enquiries: Rick – 0490 233 999 or Jasmin – 0431 060 556.

Those who have lost children are warmly invited to record their child's name on a card provided (alternatively please let the office know and a card can be made up for you). On the evening you are invited to light a candle to be placed before the altar. In our times of grief let us forever be consoled by Christ :

"Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" ... "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoever welcomes such a child in My name welcomes Me..." (Matt 18:1, 3-5).

This organ has been purchased by the parish with generous financial contributions from the Archdiocese, the Cathedral Choir, and an individual private donor. Parishioners are invited to contribute to the organ purchase, by making a donation and proposing a hymn in memory of their loved ones. A suggested donation amount is $75. ## Prayer for the Blessing of Rain

Lord God, Bless Australia – our Great South Land of the Holy Spirit.

 Grant, that as the Cross shines in our southern skies, so may Christ bring light to our nation, to its peoples old and new.

May we receive the blessing of abundant rain so that the "desert blooms with the life that lies in wait." We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

Readings of the Day – 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time —Year C

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us. Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

First Reading

Eccs 35:12-14, 16-18

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages. He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party. He does not ignore the orphan's supplication, nor the widow's as she pours out her story. The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted, his petitions will carry to the clouds. The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds, until it arrives he is inconsolable nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him, acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement. And the Lord will not be slow, nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

Second Reading

2 Tim 4:6-8; 16-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Reading

Luke 18: 9-14

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else, 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'
