Dear Parishioners and Visitors to Saint Christopher's Cathedral Parish,

The German pastor and theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906-1945), in a work called God is in the Manger, famously observed: "God travels wonderful ways with human beings, but he does not comply with the views and opinions of people. God does not go the way that people want to prescribe for him; rather, his way is beyond all comprehension.... Where reason is indignant, where our nature rebels, where our piety anxiously keeps us away: that is precisely where God loves to be, that is where he wants to be, and no one can keep him from it..."

He continued:

"Only the humble believe him and rejoice that God is so free and so marvellous that he does wonders where people despair, that he takes what is little and lowly and makes it marvellous. ... God is not ashamed of the lowliness of human beings. [He] marches right in. He chooses people as his instruments and performs his wonders where one would least expect them. God is near to lowliness; he loves the lost, the neglected, the unseemly, the excluded, the weak and broken."

We are well into preparations for that moment which marks the greatest moment of joy, hope and celebration not only for the Christian, but for every human person; and yet almost paradoxically, in these days and years the world seems more than ever... a mess. And not only the world... the Church, and perhaps your own families, your own lives can in many way too look a mess.

This Sunday is known as Gaudete Sunday, from the Latin meaning rejoice! But the honest question, the real question (and we must deal with facts!), is... can we really, rejoice...always? (Philippians 4:4). And furthermore, what does such joy look like? Every life contains sadness and hurt. More than one person reading this is asking: "what Reason do I have for Joy?" And yet what we are told in these day is that our joy is far more than the externals. It pierces far deeper. If we have eyes to see, we are able to see the Magnificence at the Heart of the Mess... and how Magnificent it is!

God is no more far off and distant... but comes to us! The human person can not now say therefore 'God doesn't understand. He doesn't know how I feel, how I suffer'. In this moment He does, and He promises to be with us in this journey; and that is surely a reason to rejoice!

Christ, Yesterday, Today, Forever – Behind us, Beside us, Before us... that is the hidden joy we bear and that we witness in the manger! God coming to us, God with us. We do not see Him with our eyes but we see that wherever Jesus is, people change, we change... There is a greater capacity for peace, reconciliation, hope and love; and often, when so many of the externals stay the same. And that is most certainly a reason to rejoice! For as Card. Joseph Ratzinger (Pope emeritus Benedict XVI) once wrote "Daring to talk to God out of the trials of our darkness is as Job did, is a part of our Christian life..." For this is where God is found.

Thank you to all who attended Christmas Carols with the Archbishop in the Cathedral on Thursday night. What an uplifting and hopefully evening it was. A chance to rejoice! Thank you to our wonderful choir director Jaki Kane, our talented organist Ben Chesworth and to our magnificent choir. We as so very blessed to have the talents and dedication of these men and women, who each week help raise our minds and hearts to God. We are so very grateful.

May the journey of Advent continue to draw our hearts to the hope, joy, life and Magnificent who is born in the manger; for this is our only reason to rejoice, and it is the reason Who gives meaning, life and hope to all we do.

Please always know of your priests' prayer for you.

Fr Trenton

These parish sessions are not the 'only chance' you have to contribute. You are able to make contribution on the official website at any time. It is humbling and exciting to say that after only 2 sessions we have already seen fruits of our listening and discernment together in our parish community. Let us continue to make this journey together, as we prepare for a big 2020.

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost. Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land. O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth. Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age.

Amen. Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.

Readings of the Day – Third Sunday of Advent —Year A

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Lord, come and save us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear. Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

First Reading

Is 35:1-6, 10

Let the wilderness and the dry-lands exult, let the wasteland rejoice and bloom, let it bring forth flowers like the jonquil, let it rejoice and sing for joy. The glory of Lebanon is bestowed on it, the splendour of Carmel and Sharon; they shall see the glory of the Lord, the splendour of our God. Strengthen all weary hands, steady all trembling knees and say to all faint hearts, 'Courage! Do not be afraid. 'Look, your God is coming, vengeance is coming, the retribution of God; he is coming to save you.' Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy, for those the Lord has ransomed shall return. They will come to Zion shouting for joy, everlasting joy on their faces; joy and gladness will go with them and sorrow and lament be ended.

Second Reading

Jas 5:7-10

Be patient, brothers, until the Lord's coming. Think of a farmer: how patiently he waits for the precious fruit of the ground until it has had the autumn rains and the spring rains! You too have to be patient; do not lose heart, because the Lord's coming will be soon. Do not make complaints against one another, brothers, so as not to be brought to judgement yourselves; the Judge is already to be seen waiting at the gates. For your example, brothers, in submitting with patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

Gospel Reading

Mt 11:2-11

John in his prison had heard what Christ was doing and he sent his disciples to ask him, 'Are you the one who is to come, or have we got to wait for someone else?' Jesus answered, 'Go back and tell John what you hear and see; the blind see again, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised to life and the Good News is proclaimed to the poor; and happy is the man who does not lose faith in me.'

As the messengers were leaving, Jesus began to talk to the people about John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the breeze? No? Then what did you go out to see? A man wearing fine clothes? Oh no, those who wear fine clothes are to be found in palaces. Then what did you go out for? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet: he is the one of whom scripture says: Look, I am going to send my messenger before you; he will prepare your way before you. I tell you solemnly, of all the children born of women, a greater than John the Baptist has never been seen; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he is.'
