Dear Parishioners and Visitors to Saint Christopher's Cathedral Parish,

We've all made a journey to be here today; some from across the city, others from around the corner. In the Cathedral parish each week, many come from across the border, while others from around the world. And how fitting it is during this season of Advent, for it's not just us. Christmas and indeed the entire Christian narrative is itself a journey, while being filled with many journeys. The journey of the angel Gabriel to a young Mary of Nazareth. The journey of Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem. The journey of the shepherds as they followed the star, and later that of the Magi to see the new born Child. And of course we have the baby's own journey from His throne in heaven to the world below.

The image of journeying characterises the relationship between God and us; between Creator and creature. We see this in our story which unfolds in the scriptures. God never simply allows us to remain stagnant—for while meeting us where we are—He never allows us to remain there, but rather, He calls us to leave the familiar and embark on a journey that often takes us into what is foreign. This takes courage, and often an enormous amount of it! Such a truth is the same one echoed to Joseph this weekend in the Gospel: "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid..."—"do not be afraid to take the next step, to follow the path I am leading you down."

A journey by definition, means moving from one place to another. Literally then it's a dis-location, which often implies a pulling or painful wrenching. The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of King David is a "dislocating" God who commands: "Go from your country... to the land that I will show you" (Gen 21:1). The command to Abraham was the same to Mary and indeed Joseph; and it's the same invitation that comes to us at Christmas, prepared for during Advent.

Mary characterises these days, because like Abraham before her, she received a promise which seemed impossible. Mary is told 'do not be afraid' (Luke 1:30), and is led to another place; a place which claims all of her, soul, mind, heart, and even her very body—as genuine love always does! The Mother of Jesus says yes to the plan of God. And yet through the following years, moments emerge when the plan seems to have gone awry, forgotten by God and engulfed by darkness. Mary must keep saying yes...even when that yes leads her to the cross; where that skin she once caressed and kissed with her own lips, is now bruised and red with her Son's own blood.

God's presence and coming to us always causes us to be dislocated, there is no doubt. Because yes, many of us journeyed to be here today, but the real ongoing journey is the one our hearts make to conceive of the fact that God is coming to us in person, and we cannot be left unchanged. A heart that moves away from the prejudice of doing things my way, and open to the journey that God makes with us.

In these days of focusing, of waiting, let us allow ourselves to experience another dis-location, not necessarily a painful one, but a lasting one. That we may experience the Incarnation in a way we have not before. That we may be taken to another place and in so doing genuinely grow. And as we do this, let us hear those same words spoken to our family for centuries, "Do not be afraid, for I am with you!" (Isaiah 41:10).

In Advent we journey like those before and pre-eminently with Mary and Joseph, saying as we go, "Come, Lord Jesus!" (Rev. 22:20). And with confidence we approach the day, the day of God's birth into the world, and with joy we welcome Him, that whatever location we are drawn into whatever challenges, pain or hurdles lie ahead, God is with us and He will fulfil in His own way all the promises He has made.

Fr Trenton

Plenary Council Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost. Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land. O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth. Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age.

Amen. Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.

Prayer for the Blessing of Rain

Lord God, Bless Australia – our Great South Land of the Holy Spirit.

Grant, that as the Cross shines in our southern skies, so may Christ bring light to our nation, to its peoples old and new. May we receive the blessing of abundant rain so that the "desert blooms with the life that lies in wait." We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

Readings of the Day – Fourth Sunday of Advent —Year A

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Drop down dew from above, you heavens, and let the clouds rain down the Just One; let the earth be opened and bring forth a Saviour.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! A virgin will give birth to a son; his name will be Emmanuel: God is with us. Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son; and his name will be called Emmanuel.

First Reading

Is 7:10-14

The Lord spoke to Ahaz and said, 'Ask the Lord your God for a sign for yourself coming either from the depths of Sheol or from the heights above.' 'No', Ahaz answered 'I will not put the Lord to the test.' Then Isaiah said: 'Listen now, House of David: are you not satisfied with trying the patience of men without trying the patience of my God, too? The Lord himself, therefore, will give you a sign. It is this: the maiden is with child and will soon give birth to a son whom she will call Immanuel, a name which means "God-is-with-us".'

Second Reading

Rom 1:1-7

From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus who has been called to be an apostle, and specially chosen to preach the Good News that God promised long ago through his prophets in the scriptures.

This news is about the Son of God, who, according to the human nature he took, was a descendant of David: it is about Jesus Christ our Lord who, in the order of the spirit, the spirit of holiness that was in him, was proclaimed Son of God in all his power through his resurrection from the dead. Through him we received grace and our apostolic mission to preach the obedience of faith to all pagan nations in honour of his name. You are one of these nations, and by his call belong to Jesus Christ. To you all, then, who are God's beloved in Rome, called to be saints, may God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send grace and peace.

Gospel Reading

Mt 1:18-24

This is how Jesus Christ came to be born. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a man of honour and wanting to spare her publicity, decided to divorce her informally. He had made up his mind to do this when the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.' Now all this took place to fulfil the words spoken by the Lord through the prophet: The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel, a name which means 'God-is-with-us'. When Joseph woke up he did what the angel of the Lord had told him to do: he took his wife to his home.
