Dear Parishioners and Visitors to Saint Christopher's Cathedral Parish,

Continuing the Sermon on the Mount Jesus words today would have been striking and even aggravating to many who heard them, especially the Pharisees and those who would later call for his death. The words Jesus utters seemingly usurp the authority of Moses; recalling how Moses received the law on the mountain, Jesus is now giving a law upon a mountain. And yet how many realise what is truly happening?

Jesus is not speaking against Moses, but presenting himself as the new Moses. He does not undermine nor seek to destroy the law, but rather to fulfil and reveal the true essence and purpose of it. "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or Prophets. I have not come to abolish, but to fulfil them. ...until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law." (Matt 5:8).

Throughout the synoptic Gospel's (Matthew, Mark & Luke) Jesus is revealing his identity and so his authority. In Mathew he shockingly claims: "He who does not love me more than mother or father is not worthy of me," indicating that he himself is the greatest possible good, the source, fabric and possibility of every other relationship we cherish. Then in Luke: "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away," again identifying himself with the very Word of God. When challenged by the Pharisees on the Sabbath Jesus says, in reference to himself, "I tell you, something greater than the Temple is here." See what is happening? Jesus is unmistakably affirming his divinity, God in the midst of his people; since for first century Jews, it was obvious that only God himself would be greater than the Temple. Occasions when Jesus speaks like this abound in the Synoptic Gospels.

And so we arrive at today's passage: "You have heard it said [dot, dot, dot]... but I say to you..." This is perhaps one of Jesus' boldest statements. Where had they heard it said before but in the Torah, the inspired and sacred Word of God? And yet now Jesus is claiming superiority to even the Torah, the highest authority for the Jewish people. Who could make such a claim, but the One who is himself the author of the Torah?

'The law was always meant to bring humanity into line with divinity. In the beginning, this alignment was at a fairly basic level. But now that the definitive Moses has appeared, the alignment is becoming absolute, radical, complete.'

Fr Trenton

We welcome Chiara Catanzariti to our Parish as our new young adult's coordinator. An exciting chapter lay ahead this year in young adult and youth ministry. I really look forward to working with Chiara and all that lays ahead for us at SCC and SPC in the coming year. Please make Chiara welcome:

"Hello St Christopher's Cathedral Parish, my name is Chiara Catanzariti and it is a joy introduce myself as the 2020 youth minister. I have just completed my Bachelor of Commerce, double major of Law and Society & Human Resources. I'm also going into my 4th year of youth ministry in our beautiful Archdiocese of Canberra Goulburn.

I am excited for my role this year in the parish, focusing on the young adults and youth ministry. This year we seek to build upon the existing youth mass held every second Sunday, 5:30 at the Cathedral, as well as the weekly 6:30 Thursday night bible study at Haydon Hall. I'm also keen to explore more opportunities to engage in social events, and to fortify the connections of our parish and local schools.

Please come and say hello, and keep our young people in your prayers. We are all called to foster the vision of youth ministry as a community. Be encouraged by the love and hope of Christ which you carry by your life, and how this is something to be joyfully encountered by our young people in our Church today. I sincerely thank all those involved in this ministry, who have reached out supporting and strengthening our youth and young adults. I look forward in continuing to steward the amazing work that has been fostered in our community over the years." - Chiara Catanzariti

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: They ate and had their fill, and what they craved the Lord gave them; they were not disappointed in what they craved.

First Reading

Sir 15:15-20

If you wish, you can keep the commandments, to behave faithfully is within your power. He has set fire and water before you; put out your hand to whichever you prefer. Man has life and death before him; whichever a man likes better will be given him. For vast is the wisdom of the Lord; he is almighty and all-seeing. His eyes are on those who fear him, he notes every action of man. He never commanded anyone to be godless, he has given no one permission to sin

Second Reading

1 Cor 2:6-10

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him. These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

Gospel Reading

Mt 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish them but to complete them. I tell you solemnly, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, one little stroke, shall disappear from the Law until its purpose is achieved. Therefore, the man who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of heaven; but the man who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of heaven. 'For I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven. 'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court; if a man calls his brother "Fool" he will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and if a man calls him "Renegade" he will answer for it in hell fire. So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and present your offering. Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you solemnly, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny. 'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye should cause you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body thrown into hell. And if your right hand should cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body go to hell. 'It has also been said: Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal. But I say this to you: everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery. 'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne; or by the earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great king. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'
