Dear Parishioners and Visitors to Saint Christopher's Cathedral Parish,

The profound concern and desire of so many to support those suffering in these days has been overwhelming. In times like these we begin to see once more what it is that really matters. Each other. So many have already lost so much from the fires and as we know, the affects will go far deeper than the physical; but the response of you, the Church, on a local and national level has been terrific. But of course we are far from the end.

We grieve at the news of the lives claimed by these horrific fires. In the Archdiocese parishes are directly linking up with families and communities who have been affected. The prayerful and practical response of parishes has been profound. Our parish initially contributed $5,000.00 directly to a family in Bodalla, a small town on the South Coast, who has lost everything; but our support must and will continue.

To this end the Cathedral parish of Saint Peter Chanel's and Saint Christopher's will have a collection after each Mass this weekend, the funds will go directly to the families in our Archdiocese who have been affected. Tap machines this weekend will also be available to receive donations. Of course we can still donate though the Saint Vincent de Paul Bushfire appeal to help the wider communities affected.

In a time which can be very difficult and draining, emotionally, psychologically and physically, especially for those who continue to live through this nightmare, let us remain united, confident and powerful in letting our brothers and sisters know that they are surrounded by prayers and love. Let us pray for each other and of course... for rain.

Let's work together as best we can and may all whose lives have changed so dramatically in these weeks know of the prayers, love and practical support of so many. Thank you for your continued generosity.

May a happy, fruitful and holy year lay ahead!

Our Lady Help of Christians, patroness of Australia. Pray for us.

Always know of your priests' gratitude and prayers for you.

Fr Trenton

PRAYER VIGIL FOR VICTIMS AND RELIEF FROM THE FIRES

Our prayers of sadness and grief for those who are suffering the fires, and for those who have died, are always tempered by the hope that we bear as Christians. The consolation and love promised us by Jesus is a beacon of hope to all those who suffer. Join us in prayer and solidarity with all those who are suffering and who have already lost so much. We pray for rain to quench our dry land and the fires which continue to threaten.

3-5pm Sundays in January, Saint Christopher's Cathedral. Adoration. Divine Mercy Chaplet, Rosaries & prayer intentions. All are most welcome.

HOLY HOUR: From February 2020, Holy Hour will commence at the Cathedral from Tuesday to Friday 5pm to 6pm daily. "What I really prefer is adoration in the evening, even when I get distracted and think of other things, or even fall asleep praying. In the evening between seven and eight o'clock, I stay in front of the Blessed Sacrament for an hour in adoration." "If we are to know the Lord, we must go to Him. Listen to Him in silence before the Tabernacle and approach Him in the Sacraments." Pope Francis

Plenary Council Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost. Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land. O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth. Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying. Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

LORD of the Harvest, BLESS young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call. Open their hearts to great ideals, to great things. INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving— for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people. INSTILL those in religious life, parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you. UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and sacrament, so that we may cooperate with you in building your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace. Amen. — Pope Francis

Prayer for the Blessing of Rain

Lord God, Bless Australia – our Great South Land of the Holy Spirit.

Grant, that as the Cross shines in our southern skies, so may Christ bring light to our nation, to its peoples old and new. May we receive the blessing of abundant rain so that the “desert blooms with the life that lies in wait.” We ask this through Christ, Our Lord.

Amen.

Readings of the Day – Baptism of the Lord —Year A

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: After the Lord was baptized, the heavens were opened, and the Spirit descended upon him like a dove, and the voice of the Father thundered: This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Lord will bless his people with peace.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, alleluia! The heavens were opened and the Father's voice was heard: this is my beloved Son, hear him. Alleluia!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON: Behold the One of whom John said: I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God.

First Reading

Is 42:1-4. 6-7

Thus says the Lord: Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom my soul delights. I have endowed him with my spirit that he may bring true justice to the nations. He does not cry out or shout aloud, or make his voice heard in the streets. He does not break the crushed reed, nor quench the wavering flame. Faithfully he brings true justice; he will neither waver, nor be crushed until true justice is established on earth, for the islands are awaiting his law. I, the Lord, have called you to serve the cause of right; I have taken you by the hand and formed you; I have appointed you as covenant of the people and light of the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to free captives from prison, and those who live in darkness from the dungeon.

Second Reading

Acts 10:34-38

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'The truth I have now come to realise' he said 'is that God does not have favourites, but that anybody of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to him.

'It is true, God sent his word to the people of Israel, and it was to them that the good news of peace was brought by Jesus Christ – but Jesus Christ is Lord of all men. You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil.'

Gospel Reading

Mt 3:13-17

Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptised by John. John tried to dissuade him. 'It is I who need baptism from you,' he said 'and yet you come to me!' But Jesus replied, 'Leave it like this for the time being; it is fitting that we should, in this way, do all that righteousness demands.' At this, John gave in to him.

As soon as Jesus was baptised he came up from the water, and suddenly the heavens opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming down on him. A voice spoke from heaven, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on him.'
