Dear Beloved Parishioners,
As we gather to celebrate this joyous Easter season, I want to extend my heartfelt wishes for a happy and blessed Easter to each of you. This year, our Archdiocese has embraced the theme of "Get Up, Listen, and Go," inviting us to reflect on the profound messages of Easter. At this special time, let us contemplate the three essential elements that resonate from our Easter table: the table, the towels, and the time.
-The Table: The Last Supper stands as a beautiful reminder of Jesus' gift of the Eucharist, where He shared His body and blood with us, establishing a profound connection among us as a community of faith.
- The Towels: Through His passion, Christ exemplified true servanthood. By washing the disciples' feet, He demonstrated the humility and love that we are called to embody in our lives. His ultimate sacrifice on the cross illustrates the depth of His love for humanity, showing us the true meaning of service.
- The Time: In this season of resurrection, we are reminded of the gift of eternal life that awaits each of us. Each resurrection moment inspires us to rise, to listen to God's call, and to go forth with renewed purpose and determination.
May this Easter inspire all of us to embrace these themes in our daily lives, encouraging us to get up, listen to one another, and go out into the world as bearers of Christ's love.
Wishing you all a joyous Easter filled with hope and renewal.
With Love and Blessings
Fr Jiss

I always thought orthopaedic shoes were overrated, but I stand corrected.....
