Reflection - Observe the Sort of Life we Live.

In every society people observe the actions of others. When many people ignore a particular law others conclude that it is alright for them to do the same. Children often imitate the behaviours of their parents. When we practise the law of love in our lives we benefit not only those who need our help but also those who observe our actions.

You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.

Matthew 22:37

Love That Fulfills the Law - This Sunday brings us a simple but strong message. Love God. Love your neighbour. Jesus teaches that these two commands hold all of God's law and all the words of the prophets. They guide how we live, how we treat others, and how we show our faith in action.

HSC and Other Students - For all students who are preparing for the HSC and other final exams we entrust them to the care of our God. Let us hold them in prayer and in particular those of our parish, family and friends.

Yesterday, 24th October was United Nations Day marks the anniversary of the UN Charter coming into force in 1945, the moment the United Nations officially began its work. It reflects the UN’s role in promoting peace, human rights, and social progress, from fostering access to healthcare and education to raising living standards worldwide. The day originated after representatives from 50 countries met in San Francisco to draft the founding document that created the organization.

Let us pray that the United Nations move closer to achieving all their goals in this troubled and unsettled world we have today.

“God loves us, God loves you all, and evil will not prevail!”

Apostolic Blessing “Urbi et Orbi,”

May 8, 2025. Pope Leo
