You Give Them Something To Eat

In every eucharistic celebration Jesus invites us to eat and drink with him. We are the people not only at the Last Supper but also at the multiplication of the loaves. We were and are present there. He does not want us to remain hungry for all that we can find in him, for all that is good and valuable. He gives us himself and he is asking us to do the same: give them, the people, food to eat, give them yourselves. We ask the Lord to help us do this.

Marivoet, Fr. Camilo J. (1998). Liturgy Alive Models of Celebration (Year A). Quezon City, Claretian Publications

Thank you to Frs Mick Burke, Warrick Tonkin, Tom Thornton and Jim Monaghan who have celebrated Mass with us over the last four months. We will remember your stories and your prayerful presence among us with fondness and gratitude. Thank you for going the extra mile for us. God bless you with peace and strength. We welcome back Fr James next weekend after his Sabbatical in Scotland. We pray that he has booked his return flight and safe travels!

First Eucharist Program – enrolments are now open for the program, for information about enrolling, the timetable and home groups, please see our website www.cg.org.au/wodennorth

We acknowledge the Ngunnawal peoples, Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples, who are traditional custodians and first peoples of this land. We pay respect to their elders past and present. We acknowledge that they have occupied and cared for this land over countless generations and we celebrate their continuing contribution to the life of our city and region. We also extend our respect to all Aboriginal peoples living in our community.

Inquiry Nights about our Catholic Faith | Tuesday August 11, 18, 25 at 7.30pm in the Parish Centre Do you know a friend, a relative, a neighbour OR acquaintance who is not a Catholic and who likes to ask questions about what you believe OR who is genuinely searching for meaning in life.
