Witness, Speak Up

What do we do when we have to speak up about our faith, what we believe in as human persons and as Christians? Do we dare to speak up? Or do we hide our faith or minimize it? The message of today's celebration is this: do not be afraid to bear witness to your faith. Speak up, trust in God. For the Lord stands by your side. We ask the Lord present here for this courage.

Marivoet, Fr. Camilo J. (1998). Liturgy Alive Models of Celebration (Year A). Quezon City, Claretian Publications

First Eucharist Program – enrolments are now open for the program, which starts at the beginning of next term. For information about enrolling, the timetable and home groups, please see our website <https://cg.org.au/wodennorth>

Inside the Church: thank you to the 14 wonderful people who clean our church regularly and to Peter Kain who manages the roster. Thank you to Emma Fairfax who looks after the church decoration and to the people who wash the altar linen. We are grateful for your work in creating a beautiful and prayerful environment to worship together.

We acknowledge the Ngunnawal peoples, Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples, who are traditional custodians and first peoples of this land. We pay respect to their elders past and present. We acknowledge that they have occupied and cared for this land over countless generations and we celebrate their continuing contribution to the life of our city and region. We also extend our respect to all Aboriginal peoples living in our community.

Thursday 25 June 5 - 7 pm | The Cenacle: Institute for Synodal Evangelisation second Formation Forum, "Who is God?"

This Forum offers an opportunity to reflect on the identity and nature of God as we explore the Christian understanding of God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Through interviews and personal stories, the evening will explore what it means to move beyond simply knowing about God to discovering and developing a relationship with Him.
