We acknowledge the Ngunnawal peoples, Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples, who are traditional custodians and first peoples of this land. We pay respect to their elders past and present and to the memory of their ancestors. We acknowledge that they have occupied and cared for this land over countless generations and we celebrate their continuing contribution to the life of our city and region. We also extend our respect to all Aboriginal peoples living in our community.

Until Where Do I Follow My Lord

Today is a day of glory for the Lord, with people acclaiming him as God's messenger: 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.' A few days from now, as we will hear in the Passion story, people will shout: 'Crucify him!' We understand this better when we reflect on our lives. We have some days of glorious happiness, of success and joy, but also days of contradiction and failure. Today we look at them in the light of the Lord. With him we live happy days, with him we experience sad days, but whether sad or joyful, in all of them we follow the Lord.

Volunteers needed for the Triduum

Please have a look at the volunteer sheet in the front foyer and see how you can help with the various ministries during the Triduum. Your help is greatly appreciated at this important and busy time of the year.

Flowers for the church are needed; please place in the buckets provided in the foyer before 12 noon on Holy Thursday and Easter Saturday.

Anyone who wants to help with the PowerPoint slides or audio at Masses is welcome to contact Anne Hitchings via an email to the Parish Office. We are always looking for volunteers, and many hands make light work. No experience is needed.

Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land

Traditionally in Australia, a special Collection has been taken up on Good Friday to support the Franciscans who administer and maintain the Holy Land pilgrimage sites. The Franciscans also support medical centres, schools and suffering communities. With the horrific hostilities presently smothering the Holy Land and the Middle East, the need for support has never been greater. Please consider giving generously this Good Friday.

Easter Vigil Supper – after the Easter Vigil, there will be a supper in the Parish Centre, all welcome and please bring something to share if you are able.

Readings for next Sunday: Easter Vigil Gen 1:1-2:2, Ex14:15-15:1, Is 55:1-11, Rom6:3-11, Mt 28:1-10

Easter Sunday Acts 10:34, 37-43, Col:3:1-4, Jn 20:1-9
