Our Care of God's Vineyard

A good farmer, even one who rents the land, takes care of his fields and crops. For he loves all that grows and bears fruit; there is life in it, he can see it grow. God loves his people, the vineyard he has planted and surrounded with loving care. His Son died for us, his people, that we might live and grow. God has entrusted this vineyard to us, leaders and people together, not as a privilege but as a field to work in, so that it can bear rich fruits of justice and love. Where are these fruits?

We acknowledge the Ngunnawal peoples, Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples, who are traditional custodians and first peoples of this land. We pay respect to their elders past and present. We acknowledge that they have occupied and cared for this land over countless generations and we celebrate their continuing contribution to the life of our city and region. We also extend our respect to all Aboriginal peoples living in our community.

St Clare's College | CACGEL is conducting community consultation on a proposal to transition St Clare's College from a single-sex college for girls to a co-educational model. This has raised significant concern within our College community. St Clare's Community Council invites parishioners to submit feedback on the proposal directly via email to CACGEL and/or copy in the Community Council.

From the Second Vatican Council, in its Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of 1963, known by its Latin title Sacrosanctum Concilium, at § 47 we find the statement: At the Last Supper, on the night when He was betrayed, our Savior instituted the Eucharistic Sacrifice of His Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the Sacrifice of the Cross throughout the centuries until He should come again, and so to entrust to His beloved Spouse, the Church, a memorial of His Death and Resurrection: a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity, a paschal banquet in which Christ is eaten, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given.
