

Trinity Sunday Year A, 31 May 2026.

PRESIDER

Dear friends, blest with the grace, love and communion of the Holy Trinity, let us pray for the whole world to know the mystery of God.

READER

We pray for our Jewish sisters and brothers, that like their ancestor Moses they will know God to be full of tenderness, compassion and kindness. (Pause) Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for the followers of Jesus, that they will believe in him as the Word made flesh and light of the world. (Pause) Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for the human family, that the Spirit of God will fill every heart with peace, wisdom and hope. (Pause) Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for all people on earth, that this week's World Environment Day (5 June) will inspire them to care lovingly for God's handiwork. (Pause) Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for promoters of artificial intelligence, that Pope Leo's encyclical will ensure they use it to enrich and not diminish human flourishing. (Pause) Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for Australians old and new, that this week's Mabo Day (3 June) commemoration will enlarge their willingness to share the nation's blessings justly. (Pause) Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for those who have died recently especially Benigno Caggiano, and those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time, that they will be welcomed into the loving embrace of our triune God. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

PRESIDER

Holy God, you sent your Son to save us and your Spirit to enliven us. Free us to praise and bless you for ever. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
