Feast of All Saints Year A, 1 November 2026.

PRESIDER
Dear sisters and brothers, the Saints, our sisters and brothers, walked the way of Jesus and now share God's endless glory. Through their intercession we bring these petitions to the Father of all.

READER
We pray for the church around the world. May believers everywhere be inspired by the many saints whom we celebrate today. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for Pope Leo. May he stay well and strong throughout his pastoral visit to Uruguay, Argentina and Peru in coming days. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for Australian women and men being considered for canonisation. May they soon join Mary of the Cross MacKillop as saints in this land of the Holy Spirit. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for Christians enduring persecution, danger and discrimination in hostile lands. May they draw strength from the saving blood of the Lamb. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for the unsung saints in our midst. May they be blessed for their faithful lives of mercy, justice and peace. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for those who have died recently, and those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time, especially Oresto Trinca and the loved ones we especially remember on All Souls Day. May they gain eternal rest and we be consoled. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

PRESIDER
Lord God, eternal glory is yours, and in the richness of your mercy you have called the Saints to live in that glory forever. May we continue our journey of faith and keep our eyes fixed on your promise of eternal life where the Saints dwell. Through Christ our Lord.
