PRESIDER
Dear sisters and brothers, Jesus wants us to be wise and watchful, ever ready for the call of the kingdom. With eyes and hearts open, we pray for the needs of the world.

READER
We pray for Pope Leo who is visiting South America, may his visit strengthen the faith of the countries he is visiting and may the light of their faith bring forth the fruits of the Holy Spirit (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for church leaders in the United States. May they proclaim to the nation the gospel of love, mercy and peace. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for the small Christian community in the Holy Land. May they be a leaven of unity and reconciliation in that place of deep division. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for chaplains on this Prison Sunday. May they care for the imprisoned with the compassion of Christ. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for our priests and deacons, called to be wise in the service of God's people, will receive support and encouragement in their parishes and communities, and grow in holiness. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for the Indian community in Australia as they celebrate Diwali today. May their Festival of Light spread hope and confidence across the nation. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for older Australians being assessed for aged care. May decisions about their needs be made by real people, not by impersonal technology alone. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for those who have died recently especially Leila Jordan, and those whose deaths we mourn on Remembrance Day this week, and all whose anniversary of death occurs around this time including John & Maria Nguyen. May they be raised to everlasting life with Christ. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.
