Jesus is calling you

Jesus called Simon and his brother Andrew to come and follow him. Simon and Andrew were fishermen. They left their boats, their nets, their families and their homes and followed Jesus. Jesus taught them and showed them the love of God and how to love and care for others.

Jesus calls you to learn from him and to share what you learn with others, just like Simon and Andrew and the other disciples did.

Jesus is calling you to follow him. You don't have to leave home to do that. There are lots of ways that you can follow Jesus everyday. Some of them are hidden in this puzzle. Can you find them?
